Genuine community, grounded in God's truth and love, changes lives. And lives transformed by the power the gospel will break through the darkness and bring saving Light to the world.

1. Doubts about God's grace knock us down when we feel weakest. It is in those moments, when our faith seems smallest, that God offers us something we can never take away. When your faith feels small, remember these five things:

   a. God gives us something we can never take away.
   b. God gives us something we can never take away.
   c. God gives us something we can never take away.
   d. God gives us something we can never take away.
   e. God gives us something we can never take away.

2. Christianity, Truth, and Weakening Faith: A Dialogue

Christianity, Truth, and Weakening Faith advances just such a dialogue, featuring the collaboration of two major philosophers known for their progressive approach to this issue. Seeking unity over difference, Gianni Vattimo and René Girard turn to Max Weber, Eric Auerbach, and Marcel Gauchet, among others, in their exploration of truth and liberty, relativism and faith, and the tensions of a world filled with new forms of religiously inspired violence.
